Ky Govt. Names Civilians

But Truce's Near Collapse

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Premier Nguyen Cao Ky's military regime nominated a slate of 10 civilians today to join the 10-man ruling junta but excluded Buddhist extremists opposing the government.

The list included some moderate Buddhists, Roman Catholics and representatives of the Cao Dai and Hoa Hao sects. But the absence of any militant Buddhists pointed to the imminent danger of a collapse of the political truce between the regime and the unified Buddhist Church.

Even before the government published the list, the Buddhist Institute said: "This cannot solve anything but only increase the opposition from the people." A spokesman said the Buddhists wouldn't join the government if asked.

The ruling generals drafted the list of civilians several hours before a deadline agreed on last week in negotiations between moderate Buddhist elements and the Ky regime to end the political crisis.

The list submitted by the junta was revised this afternoon by the 34-man Armed Forces Council, part of the governing military apparatus, then sent back to the junta for approval.

The Buddhist Institute, in a communique, repeated demands for the resignation of Ky and the chief of state, Nguyen Van Thieu.

"If the two generals still remain in power with only superficial changes in the junta, it cannot solve anything but only increase the opposition from the people," the communique said.

U. N. ACTION

WASHINGTON (AP) — United Nations Ambassador Arthur J. Goldberg briefs senators today amid indications the United States may bid for General Assembly action to supervise South Viet Nam's proposed elections.

Goldberg, who has encountered stiff opposition within Security Council circles to Saigon's request for U.N. observers, scheduled a luncheon with about 15 senators. Most of the 15 are considered liberals and some have criticized President Johnson's course in Viet Nam.

Goldberg called Sunday for a "mutual cessation of all types of hostilities" in Viet Nam and urged that a new Geneva conference be held to reaffirm 1954 and 1962 Geneva agreements for peace in Southeast Asia. In a commencement address at the Catholic University of America here, Goldberg also said the United States was prepared to abide by the results of reunification elections contemplated by the 1954 Geneva agreement "whatever these results might be."

North Western Asks To Merge With Milwaukee

The Chicago & North Western Railway and the Chicago, Milwaukee, St. Paul and Pacific Railroad today filed a joint application with the Interstate Commerce Commission for approval of consolidation of the two midwestern carriers.

The filing of the application marks the beginning of the final step in procedures to consolidate two railroads which for more than a quarter of a century have been regarded as "ideal merger partners."

Ben W. Heineman, chairman and president of the North Western, and William J. Quinn, president of the Milwaukee Road, said that "We know of no other two railroads in the United States that, in combination, could offer greater benefits to the regions and communities they serve, to their shippers, investors, employees and the general public."

The application states that because the 10,246-mile North Western and the 10,512-mile Milwaukee Road serve the same general territory in the Midwest, including numerous points in common, and operate a large number of duplicate lines and facilities, the two roads are "logical components of a single railroad. The consolidated operation of the two carriers will help create a healthy rail system out of two marginal carriers."

Each has lines in Wisconsin,

Illinois, Iowa, Minnesota, Upper Michigan, North Dakota and South Dakota. The Milwaukee operates a main line through Montana, Idaho and Washington to Seattle, Tacoma and other northwest Pacific ports. It also operates in Indiana and Missouri, touching Kansas and Nebraska. The North Western has lines crossing northern Nebraska and extending into west central Wyoming.

Under the terms of the North Western-Milwaukee consolidation agreement, which was overwhelmingly approved at stockholders meetings of the two roads a year ago, the North Western and Milwaukee will consolidate to form a new corporation known as the Chicago, Milwaukee and North Western Transportation Co.

Both the North Western and the Milwaukee Road serve the Upper Peninsula. They both hauled ore to the Port of Escanaba until the 1930s when they pooled this traffic and now share it on the proportions then existing.

The North Western operates passenger trains from Menominee to Ishpeming and has freight service from Escanaba west to the Menominee Range and into Wisconsin. The Milwaukee Road enters the U.P. near Iron Mountain and runs to Champion, to Ontonagon and to the Menominee Range.

Peking Purge Believed Fight Of Mao's Heirs

TOKYO (AP) — The Peking watchers believe the current purge in Red China is the beginning of a power struggle among Mao Tse-tung's heirs.

Following the ouster of powerful Peking Mayor Peng Chen from his party post, some observers predicted a showdown between President Liu Shao-chi and Premier Chou En-lai. Their theory was that Chou had Peng fired for fear he would try to grab Chou's position as premier. The observers said Peng had been maneuvering to become premier under President Liu's protection by blaming Chou for recent economic and diplomatic reverses.

Liu and Chou, both 67, are China's two most powerful men after Communist party chairman Mao, whose failing health is believed to have touched off the power struggle. Mao is 72 and makes few public appearances.

Lo Disappeared

Those who foresee the power struggle continuing, with the purge catching even more prominent figures, say one of the next victims could be the army chief Lo Jui-ching. Lo disappeared from public view last November, one month after high-level party meetings.

Some say Lo may have disagreed with the aims and conduct of the purge, which in the early stages took the form of a campaign by army newspapers against intellectuals. If Lo was a friend of Mayor Peng, so the theory goes, then he also may have been aligned with the forces of President Liu, who suffered a setback with Peng's ouster.

Other observers see the possibility of a clash between President Liu and Defense Minister Lin Biao, 57, Lin, who is also first deputy premier, recently put forth new lines of theory on how to implement Mao's teachings.

Teng Involved

Another figure with a possible key role in the struggle is Teng Hsiao-ping, 61-year-old party secretary-general. Teng's position is not yet clear but a leading Tokyo newspaper says he, too, may have thrown his support to Premier Chou against President Liu. The newspaper, Mainichi, speculates that Teng one was close to President Liu but later shifted to Premier Chou and got Lin Biao to begin the crackdown on dissident intellectuals.

The new party committee for Peking announced today that it had fired Fan Chin, chief editor of two Peking newspapers, dissolved their editorial committees and named a new editorial committee to run the papers. A monthly magazine which Teng To edited was suspended for reorganization.

EUGENE CERNAN, 32-year-old astronaut who exclaimed "Boy, it is beautiful out here!" before stepping out into space for his two hour and 5 minutes walk above the earth on Sunday, maneuvers around Gemini 9 at the end of his 25 foot tether in this sketch by Associated Press Artist Ted Mathewson. He had to use Gemini 9's hand rails and the tether to maneuver because his back pack, the square object on the back of the spaceship, could not be used because of equipment failure. (AP Wirephoto)

Record Walk In Space Stars In Troubled Flight

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — The Gemini 9 astronauts rode their tiny spaceship to a near-perfect safe landing in the Atlantic Ocean today, clinching a sensational, often-troubled flight highlighted by Eugene A. Cernan's record space walk.

Astronauts Thomas P. Stafford and Cernan made the most accurate landing in the U.S. man-in-space program. They parked Gemini 9 less than two miles from the aiming point and only about three miles from the main recovery ship, the aircraft carrier Wasp, and in the view of millions of television watchers.

Three Day Flight

"On the money" splashdown came at 10 a.m. EDT after a flight of 3 days, 21 minutes, during which Gemini 9 circled the globe 45 times and traveled nearly 1.2 million miles.

While thousands of sailors, wearing their Sunday best, cheered, the Wasp maneuvered alongside and retrieved the astronauts and space craft from the sea 50 minutes after splashdown.

Stafford and Cernan acknowledged the cheers with waves and thumbs-up signals. Both appeared relaxed and in excellent physical condition.

Command pilot Stafford, whose cool, on-the-spot decisions played a key role in the mission, steered the space ship to a touchdown within sight of the carrier and on-deck television cameras, which relayed the dramatic picture via the Early Bird satellite to millions of U.S. homes.

45 Orbits

Their fiery return to earth started 160 miles above the Pacific Ocean near the international dateline when the craft's four retro-rockets fired with a jolt at 9:26 a.m. EDT.

The braking action slowed Gemini 9's 17,460-mile-and-hour speed by 300 miles and the craft, caught in the grip of earth's gravity, began the meteoric plunge back through the heat barrier of the earth's atmosphere.

Mission Control Center reported after the landing that the communications through the 34-minute re-entry period were better than on any of 12 previous U.S. man-in-space flights.

World Watching

Only during a four-minute period when 3,000-degree heat shrouded the spacecraft in an ionization curtain was contact lost with the pilots.

"Have you got us in sight?" Stafford asked as Gemini 9 drifted down to its 84-foot chute.

The aircraft carrier Wasp advised that it did and added: "The whole world has you in sight."

The sailors on the Wasp crowded the deck as the big carrier turned to approach the spacecraft in the water and haul it aboard. They were cheering the astronauts riding in the mild seas.

Troubles Studied

Stafford and Cernan planned to spend only a few hours aboard the carrier, then fly to Cape Kennedy in the afternoon.

Gemini officials were anxious to start questioning them about the numerous problems that plagued them in space, primarily the fogged helmet visor that cut Cernan's space walk short after 2 hours 5 minutes, half an hour earlier than intended.

The frosted visor, combined with garbled radio communications, prohibited Cernan from using a rocket-powered back pack to maneuver in space.

Flight A Success

Still, the walk was considered a remarkable success. Cernan was outside the orbiting Gemini 9 six times longer than U. S. astronaut Edward H. White II and 12 times longer than Soviet cosmonaut Alexei Leonov — the two other men to venture into the alien weightless world far from their home planet.

"This represents a major milestone," said Gemini program manager Charles Mathews. "We've learned so much on how hard EVA (extra-vehicular activity) is. We've learned man can go out and not become disoriented, not become excited and conduct it with a very rational approach."

Two Mothers, Baby Kidnaped At State Church

LANSING (AP) — Two mothers and a baby spent several terrifying hours at the mercy of a gunman who kidnaped them in front of a Lansing church Sunday and locked one woman in the car trunk.

The abductor abandoned the car on a country road when one of the mothers escaped and spread the alarm.

Four hours after the kidnapping and 40 miles west of Lansing, State Police Trooper Royal Gaddy spotted a man in a wooded area. Gaddy was lowered from a National Guard helicopter, crept up behind him, and captured him without a struggle.

Gaddy identified the man he arrested as Gary Lee Hoskins, 27, of Benton Harbor. Hoskins was turned over to Lansing police for investigation. No charges were filed.

Mrs. Joan VanAuker and Mrs. Carol Emerson, both 31 and both Sunday School teachers, had just stopped their car near St. Paul's Episcopal Church, across from the State Capitol in Lansing, and let out four children when a man climbed into the car and said "start driving."

In the car was Mrs. VanAuker's six-month-old baby, Mark.

Cursed Them

The kidnaper got angry and started cursing when they pleaded with him to let them go, the women said. About 20 miles from Lansing, he ordered Mrs. VanAuker to stop the car and forced Mrs. Emerson into the trunk.

"You're too much for me if you decide to make trouble," Mrs. VanAuker said the man explained. Farther west, Mrs. VanAuker tried to attract two men in a backyard by screaming for help.

"The two men just stood there watching, flabbergasted. I guess they thought it was a family fight," she said.

As the car slowed, Mrs. VanAuker slipped out the door and ran away from her captor. He drove off with Mrs. Emerson still in the trunk and the baby on the floor.

A few minutes later, the kidnaper stopped the car, unlocked the trunk and let her look with him from a bluff for possible pursuers. He then locked Mrs. Emerson in the trunk again, drove a short while longer and then abandoned the car.

Senator Mack's Wife Killed

WOODRUFF, Wis. (AP) — The wife of Michigan's Sen. Joseph S. Mack, D-Ironwood, was one of three women killed Sunday in a head-on auto crash on U. S. 51, nine miles north of this northern Wisconsin community.

Police said Mrs. Mack, 45, and Mrs. Zenda Tregembo, 52, both of Ironwood, apparently were on a Sunday drive when their auto collided with another driven by William Remick of Minneapolis.

The two Michigan women and Remick's wife, Nellie, 61, were killed instantly, police said. Remick was reported in fair condition at a Woodruff hospital.

The crash occurred about 50 miles south of Ironwood.

Mrs. Mack's husband is a first term state senator and previously served several terms in the Michigan House of Representatives.

Mrs. Mack was the mother of two sons.

Three Teacher Strikes Solved

DETROIT (AP) — Agreements were reached in three southeastern Michigan teacher walkouts over the weekend, assuring the reopening of classes today for thousands of students shut out by teacher demonstrations last week.

Settlements were announced in Flint and the suburban Detroit district of Taylor Township and Melvindale. The threat of a strike in the Warren-Fitzgerald school district was ended Saturday with a two-year agreement. The Taylor Township agreement called for $561,590 in salary increases for the system's 685 teachers.

Starting salaries were boosted from $5,400 to $5,650 for teachers with bachelor's degrees. After eight years experience, holders of bachelor's degrees would receive $9,150 instead of the present $8,200.

Salaries for beginning teachers with master's degrees were raised from $5,775 to $6,100. In Melvindale, salaries for the system's 200 teachers were increased by $145,000. No details of the Flint agreement were announced.

Bargaining continued in the Crestwood and North Dearborn Heights school districts, but no progress was reported. In Ecorse, the school board refused to negotiate as long as teacher walkout is in progress. In Crestwood, a negotiations meeting was set for 4 p.m. today.

The Crestwood Education Association filed formal charges of unfair labor practices with the State Labor Mediation Board and asked the Michigan Education Association (MEA) to impose sanctions against the district.

Sanctions could result in the district being placed on an MEA blacklist, with teachers being advised not to sign contracts for the next school year.

The teacher walkouts last Thursday and Friday idled some 80,000 students at one time.

State law forbids strikes by public employees, and MEA officials described their demonstrations as "professional days." But some of the walkouts were staged by local unions of the AFL-CIO Michigan Federation of Teachers (MFT), whose spokesmen frankly used the term "strikes."

Meanwhile, the State Board of Education sent telegrams to the presidents of the MEA and MFT, Michigan Association of School Boards and Michigan Association of School Administrators calling on them to "use every possible resource available to reach fair and equitable resolutions of the issues in dispute." It added:

"We urge that you assist in the resumption of negotiations where they have broken off without delay."

Gambling?

CARSON CITY, Nev. (AP) — Nevada voters will decide whether to start the state's first official lottery next November, says Secretary of State John Kootz.

A firm, Silver State Sweepstakes, filed a petition containing more than twice the 13,738 signatures required to place a proposition on the ballot, Kootz said.

Soil District Milestone

1000th Farmer Member

The Menominee County Conservation District reached a milestone in its 22 years of service to landowners this month when Lloyd Kleiman, 33-year-old dairy farmer of Wilson, became the 1000th district cooperators. He was honored at a banquet in Powers Saturday along with Mack Walcher, who was the first district cooperators.

Kleiman was born and reared on the farm he now occupies. It has been in the Kleiman family for many years. The present owner assumed command three years ago. He is married to the former Beatrice (Dolly) Pradeau of Spalding and the couple have two children, Allen, 9 and Julie, 5.

His reason for becoming an SCD cooperators, Kleiman said, was to learn what is best for the farm and to apply it as rapidly as possible.

Allen Weber of the Soil Conservation Service said the next steps in the district program would be to furnish Kleiman with a soils inventory and assist him in making decisions on land use and treatment. Weber has been soil conservationist in the Menominee District since it was organized in 1944. The present SCS staff includes Roland Peterson of Escanaba and John Brosilavick of Stephenson.

Mack Walcher, who operates a farm east of Ingalls, recalled being the first Menominee County farmer to apply contour strips to control erosion. He got help from Gail Bowers who was the new county agricultural agent in 1941, and who later assisted in organizing the soil conservation district. The new farm practice met with some skepticism from other farmers, Walcher said.

The Walcher family, which includes a son, Willis, and son-in-law, Robert Egerer, operates 210 acres of cropland and continues to use good soil conservation practices.

Present directors of the Menominee Soil Conservation District are: Gerald Theuerkauf, Menominee; Gerald Benson, and Harry Hanchek, Carney; Mark Mulzer and Oren Berto, Daggett.

Welfare Cases Dip, Costs Up

Upper Peninsula direct relief cases in March declined, but the cost increased. Most of the funds go for supplementation of income for care of the elderly.

There were 1,413 cases compared with 1,561 a year ago, but costs mounted from $109,993 to $137,003. Medical expense is a major reason.

Delta County had 140 cases in March a year ago and 195 last March and spending went up from $10,161 to $27,006 reflecting greater liberality of aid and higher costs of providing it.

Delta's spending compared with $35,183 in Marquette County, which had almost twice as much population and which had 151 cases.

Neighboring Menominee County had 91 cases and spent $4,806. Mackinac 40-$2,719; Dickinson 73-$4,082; Chippewa 53-$4,033; and Alger 51-$2,715. Schoolcraft had 31 cases compared with 46 a year ago, and cut its spending to $2,046 from $3,419.

British Columbia, Canada's westernmost province, supplies half of that nation's wood products, a third of its fish and nearly all its zinc and lead.

Marquette Gets Grant For Sewer

Approval of a $369,000 federal grant to build a pumping station and extend a sewer line to new dormitories on the Northern Michigan University campus, Marquette is announced by the Economic Development Administration. Marquette will match the EDA grant for a total cost of $738,000. The dorms to be served by the new sewer line will house about 3,000 students.

Rural Slums Coming

New leisure, new affluence, new highways, and new population pressures have created a new problem in the northern Lower Peninsula. It is "northwoods blight," as it is called in a special report on natural resources prepared by the Michigan State Chamber of Commerce.

Basically, the problem stems from an overcrowding of cottages around many of the numerous lakes in the upper part of the Lower Peninsula.

There was a time when only the well-to-do could afford summer cottages on many of these lakes. But conditions have changed greatly, and summer cabins on cramped lots are now available for "$25 down and $25 a month."

This has produced cottage slums on a number of lakes, which defeat the very recreational ends their owners seek.

"One of the first considerations for a cabin in the woods is the peace and quiet of an autumn day, the songs of birds on a sunny morning, the call of a loon at dusk across the water," the Chamber states. "Today the pleasant sounds are lost in the blare of a television set through an open door, and the only sound from the loon is a cry of fright."

"Our lakes are becoming so crowded with boats and water skiers that neighbor rises against neighbor, and iron-clad organizations form overnight in order to protect their special use of the water. Fishermen lay in wait in dark places for hot-rodder boatmen and retired people go crazy keeping people off their grass."

"The citizens of Southern Michigan descend in a rush on weekends to the clutter and clatter of a care-free conglomeration of cut-ups in the north woods. They leave the comfort of wide lawns and air-conditioned rooms for questionable togetherness on 40-foot lots."

Land developers in this area erect dams to create new impoundments to provide more "water frontage" for sale or they dredge channels from a lake to create "channel sub-divisions" with water frontage away from the lake proper, thereby crowding still more people into the cottage slums.

The northern Lower Peninsula is a region of great beauty. Like the Upper Peninsula, it is sparsely populated—except in the summer and on weekends, when it may be flooded with non-residents.

What is happening in some areas of the northern Lower Peninsula can happen also in the Upper Peninsula. We have been spared this sort of thing mostly because we are not so close to the great population areas to the south. But the day may come when these problems also threaten our peninsula. Meanwhile, we should be concerned about preventing these problems here.

The State Chamber of Commerce suggests that plat boards, township and community officials have ignored these danger signals too long. Any recreational settlement is regarded as desirable, no matter how cancerous. "It is apparent," the Chamber says, "that these local boards and government officials are hampered by neighborly agreements almost to the exclusion of effective and workable laws."

"Some legislation on a state level, recently enacted, will have some favorable effect on the situation. But the need for a statewide water use policy, which would encompass all of our present laws and needed new laws, is more apparent than ever."

Tailor Jobs To Skills

By BRUCE BLOSSAT
WASHINGTON (NEA) — A massive breakthrough for Negroes on the job front is in the planning stage in this country.

Plans in sweeping array are boiling up in and around the civil rights movement and will soon surface. If even just a fair proportion are translated into early action, the movement will gain the new direction and the force it has needed since protest demonstrations began last year to yield diminishing returns.

This reporter's private access to these groundbreaking ideas reveals them to be tremendous in number. Here only a handful of the most striking can be laid out.

Planners want employers to tailor at least some of their job opportunities to fit the existing attributes of Negroes who classify as hard-core unemployed.

This is a revolutionary turn-around. Up to now the whole stress has been on training jobless or underemployed Negroes up to the level of skills required in a U. S. economy that is increasingly shucking off low-skill or menial tasks.

This new notion amounts to telling employers: "There are thousands of job-hungry Negroes who today cannot qualify for the growing number of high-skill jobs. They cannot wait for work while they learn. We call upon you to redesign your job patterns so they can be hired as they are."

The urgency that runs through this idea colors virtually every planning thought now being developed for the Negro job front.

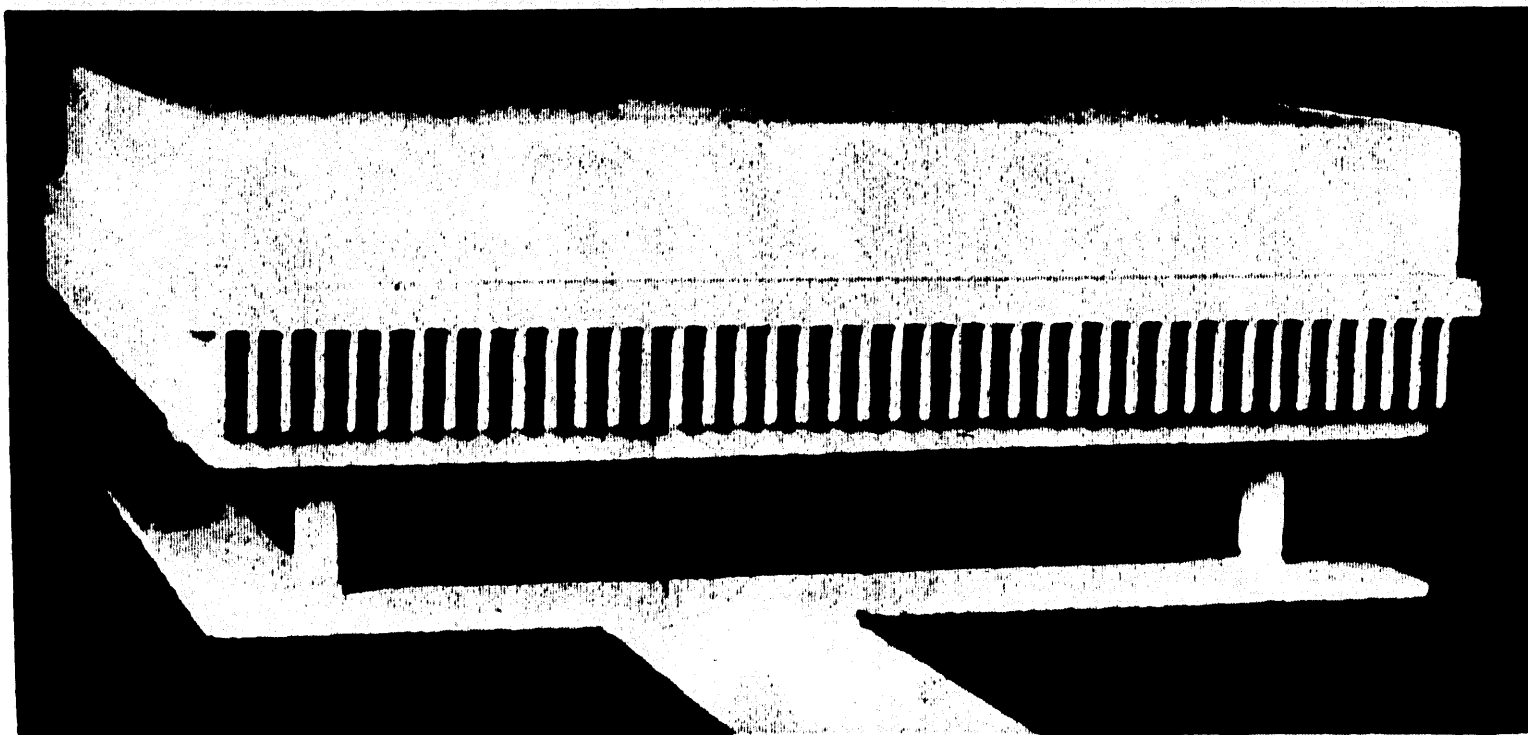

The American people are about to be asked, by many white and Negro leaders alike, to treat the incredibly bad Negro employment situation as a continuing national emergency demanding extraordinary undertakings—from this moment on—by business, labor unions, churches, civic and social organizations, government at all levels.

About 12 percent of the working-age Negro population is estimated to be either without work or underemployed. The resulting restlessness and tension make volcanoes of the

Unusual Find

PITTSBURGH, Pa. (AP) — Firemen battling a house fire here recently made an unusual find in the attic — a horde of used numbers slips.

"There must have been 1,000 shopping bags, each of them filled to the top," said Police Inspector Ignatius Borkowski. The occupant of the house was charged with operating a lottery and attempt to commit a crime.

A GIFT OF $1,200,000 from the United Automobile Workers will make possible the construction of a labor history archives building at Wayne State University in honor of Walter P. Reuther's 30 years service to the American labor movement.

Auto Workers Help Wayne State

Labor History Archives Created

Wayne State University President William R. Keast hailed announcement of a gift of $1,200,000 from the United Automobile Workers for the construction of a labor history archives building at the university as "a major development in the university's efforts to preserve original source materials of the American labor movement."

The UAW, in its announcement of the gift, has proposed that the building be named the Walter P. Reuther Building in honor of its president for his 30 years of service to the UAW.

Reuther attended Wayne State and received the university's distinguished alumni award in 1952. He also received an honorary Doctor of Laws degree from the university in 1953. He was named president of the then UAW-CIO in 1946 after previously serving as director of the General Motors department of the union and as a member of the international executive board.

The $1,200,000 gift is the second major gift that the UAW has made to the university. In April, 1952, the UAW gave WDET-FM to Wayne State including land, radio tower, transmitter and studio equipment. Its value was $125,000.

The architectural firm of O'Dell, Hewlett, and Luckenbach of Birmingham, Mich., has been retained as the architect. Their concept of the building is a three-story freestanding structure with basement to be built of reinforced concrete, concrete floors, columns and foundation walls.

The facing will be of limestone pre-cast concrete and granite. Two bronze clad doors will emphasize the front entrance while the remainder of the doors will be of anodized aluminum. The first floor will measure 82 feet by 82 feet with the second and third floors to measure 100 x 100 feet due to an overhang.

Basement area facilities will include mechanical equipment, a storage room, vault and receiving room. The first floor will feature a large reading room, research offices, seminar room, offices for the university archivist as well as display area. Storage facilities will occupy most of the second floor along with an oral history room, processing room, special services room, and other offices. Occupying the third floor will be more storage area.

In a profession that often regards personal publicity as a key to survival, Pat was no publicity seeker.

His list of accomplishments was long but the press releases from his office were few and far between. I can't remember that he ever held a press conference and he would appear on television only if he could be convinced it was essential to some cause he believed in deeply.

He authored, supported and saw enacted many important measures, but he never, to my knowledge, drew up a list of the accomplishments he was proudest of because that might have carried a whiff of self-congratulation.

However, if you watched him closely, if you observed the victories that made him grin and the issues that made him intense — then you could sense that his proudest accomplishments were the Medicare Act and the federal aid to education programs he pushed so assiduously.

Pat's formal education ended in the sixth grade and — under his crusty manner and tough Irish humor — he never forgot it.

He more than made up for his lack of formal training with ability, talent and intelligence — yet I think he may never have believed that. I think he always wistfully suspected — although this, again, is something he never said — that university training would have made him a better Senator.

This feeling poured itself into his philosophy on education. He never cited himself as proof that education is less necessary than initiative.

His feelings, typically, were summed up in 10 words: "Any kid that can get through college ought to go."

After Pat's death, many Senators — Democrats and Republicans alike — mourned his passing. Some had been his political and philosophical opponents for years. But they all put this down about him: You always knew where he stood.

I will miss him and will be gratified always to have been permitted to serve him with him.

Philip A. Hart
U.S. Senator

bor movement. The three story building will be of limestone, pre-cast concrete and granite. It will be located near the University's general library and is expected to cost $1,500,000.

By use of a computer system and its memory tape, there will be immediate location of the millions of items expected to be accumulated.

Eventually the archives hopes to gather more than 3,000,000 feet of film on the labor movement as well as thousands of photographs.

Under direction of Dr. Philip P. Mason, the labor history archives was established in 1960 to collect and preserve original source materials relating to the development of the American labor movement.

In addition to the UAW, the archives has received records from other groups. The Michigan AFL-CIO, the Wayne County AFL-CIO, the Michigan Federation of Teachers, and the Detroit Newspaper Guild are some of the Michigan organizations which have designated the archives as the official depository for their records. Also, the archives has acquired extensive personal files which relate to the Congress of Industrial Organizations, the United Textile Workers and the United Mine Workers.

One of the more significant collections recently acquired consists of the files of the Industrial Workers of the World (IWW). These records date back to the founding of the IWW in 1905 and provide important background for the history of industrial unionism.

Inquiries have already been received from dozens of scholars regarding this collection.

The Doctor Says: Patience Goes A Long Way

By Dr. Wayne G. Brandstadt

Some children are more susceptible to teasing than others just as some are more inclined than others to be bullies. If your child is unduly upset by teasing this would suggest that he feels insecure. Building up his self-confidence can't be accomplished overnight but with patience much can be done.

Often a child who has been teased becomes upset because he senses that you are disturbed over the situation. Your first step then must be to make sure that you view his problem casually. You must avoid rushing to his defense or scolding his tormentors but rather instruct him how to deal with bullies by himself.

If he is being teased by his own siblings you may want to deal with them later in private but even this often backfires and must be done with wisdom and tact.

The quickest way to resolve the problem is to find a nursery school where your child can be with others his own age and learn the lessons of give and take that he will need throughout his life.

Q—Since a fever is the body's way of fighting an infection, why doesn't the disease disappear when the fever leaves? Should a low-grade fever (101 or 102) without the aid of aspirin or alcohol rubs?

A—When the fever leaves the body there may still be millions of body cells that have been damaged by the infection. It takes time to replace these and reduce inflammation.

Please send your questions and comments to Wayne G. Brandstadt, M.D., in care of this paper. While Dr. Brandstadt cannot answer individual letters he will answer letters of general interest in future columns.

Ann Landers

Wave Phone Bill At Those Bloodshot Eyes

Dear Ann Landers: My husband is a working man and has always made a modest salary. We have managed to raise and educate our four children by following my mother's rule: "Eat it all. Wear it out. Sew it up. Do without."

Now that the children are on their own, things could be a lot easier financially, except for one thing. My husband goes on a drinking spree every two or three weeks and places long-distance calls to friends all over North America. He calls people he hasn't seen in years, like his old Marine buddies. I can tell by his end of the conversation that some of these people don't even remember him.

Furthermore, I can't get it through his head about the different time zones. We live in Santa Barbara. Last night he called a buddy in Buffalo at 11:00 P.M. and wondered why he didn't get a big hello. He got mad and yelled, "How do you like that jerk — asleep at 11:00 o'clock?"

I tried to explain that while it is 11:00 o'clock in California it is 2:00 A.M. in New York. He said I was crazy.

It burns me up that I have to hunt for bargains to save a few pennies on canned goods while my husband squanders hundreds of dollars on drunken nonsense that he can't even remember the next day. Please tell me what to do. — VERY ANNOYED

Dear Very: Ask around and determine if any of your local friends have husbands who are similarly afflicted. The boys could form a group known as Telephone Drunks Anonymous. When they get stiff they can call each other up and talk their heads off. This would be a heckuva lot cheaper than calling Buffalo.

If you can't turn up anyone, try waving last month's phone bill before his bloodshot eyes when he begins to go off the deep end. It might help—depending on how smashed he is.

Dear Ann Landers: I had an appointment with my doctor today and something happened that upset me terribly.

When the nurse left the room I picked up the doctor's chart. I had read only a few sentences when the nurse rushed back into the room, snatched the chart from my hands and shouted, "You are NOT supposed to see this."

Too many starchy-eyed lovers do not know the difference. Do you? Send for Ann Landers' booklet, "Before You Marry—Is It Love Or Sex?", enclosing with your request 20c in coin and a long, self-addressed and stamped envelope.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped and self-addressed envelope.

Two Enter Pleas In Morals Cases

William James Leach, 20, of Old State Rd., Escanaba, pleaded guilty this morning to a charge of indecent liberties when arraigned before Judge Bernard H. Davidson of Ne-gaunee in Circuit Court for Delta County.

Dr. G. H. Bast, 55, of 1015 1st Ave. S., pleaded innocent to three counts of statutory rape. Judge Davidson set sentencing for Leach at 10 a.m. Wednesday, June 29.

Arthur Nieman of Escanaba, attorney for both defendants, waived reading of information on both cases. He demanded a jury trial for Dr. Bast and reserved the right to file motions for change of venue and also for a physical examination of the complainants.

The motions are expected to be filed and heard during this term of court. Dr. Bast remained free on $5,000 bond, which was continued from Municipal Court where preliminary examination on the charges was held last month.

Judge Davidson granted a defense motion to continue the cases over the term. No date for trial in another term of the court was set.

Leach was bound over to Circuit Court by Justice A. J. Mortier in Gladstone on a charge of statutory rape. The charge was reduced to indecent liberties by Prosecutor Nicholas P. Chapek after a review of testimony in the preliminary hearing.

Indecent liberties carries a maximum sentence of up to 10 years in prison.

Judge Davidson set six civil cases for jury hearing during the term. They are:

George and Mary Frappier of Escanaba vs. Fred LeRoy Feutz, Grand Rapids, auto negligence, set Monday, June 20, at 9:30 a.m.

Violet and Lloyd Baker of Escanaba vs. Raymond E. Ethier, administrator for Peter N. Ethier, auto negligence, set Monday, June 13, at 9:30 a.m.

William H. Vietzke, Masonville, vs. Edward F. Cody, Chemical Plant location, auto negligence, set Tuesday, June 14, at 9:30 a.m.

Hans and Rose Gudwer, Rte. 1, Bark River, vs. Roy Christensen, Escanaba, auto negligence, tentatively set Wednesday, June 23, at 9:30 a.m.

Jack R. Shiner, Escanaba, vs. Eugene W. Baker and Rose Belle Baker, set Tuesday, June 21, at 9:30 a.m.

Mary Ellen Kane, Escanaba, vs. Charles Atherton, Mathias Township, Alger County, et al, set Thursday, June 16, at 9:30 a.m.

The court will also hear State Highway Department condemnation proceedings on payment disputes over nine parcels of land on the proposed U.S. 2 and 41 four-lane route between Gladstone and Rapid River. Hearings will begin Wednesday before court appointed commissioners Charles Sedenquist, John Walch and Richard Justen.

Included in the non-jury civil actions scheduled for hearing in the suit of Armo Steel Corp et al vs. Delta Recreation Corp et al, set for 9:30 a.m. Tuesday, June 7.

Cruiser Latest Vinette Craft

The T. D. Vinette Co., Escanaba, has a growing volume of boat production and its most recent launching was of an off-shore deckhouse cruiser for Dr. and Mrs. Frederick Bauer of Chicago.

The 43-foot steel-hulled craft was launched at the Escanaba yacht basin on Saturday and will be fitted out and given a series of trial runs before she is ready for delivery, said Dale Vinette.

Dr. and Mrs. Bauer were in Escanaba for the weekend and watched the launching of the boat they expect to berth most of the time at the Chicago Yacht Club. The craft is powered with two Cummings diesel engines.

Vinette said the all-steel cruiser is equipped with automatic pilot, radiophone, radar, depth indicators, and is air conditioned, insulated and soundproofed. The interior finish is American walnut.

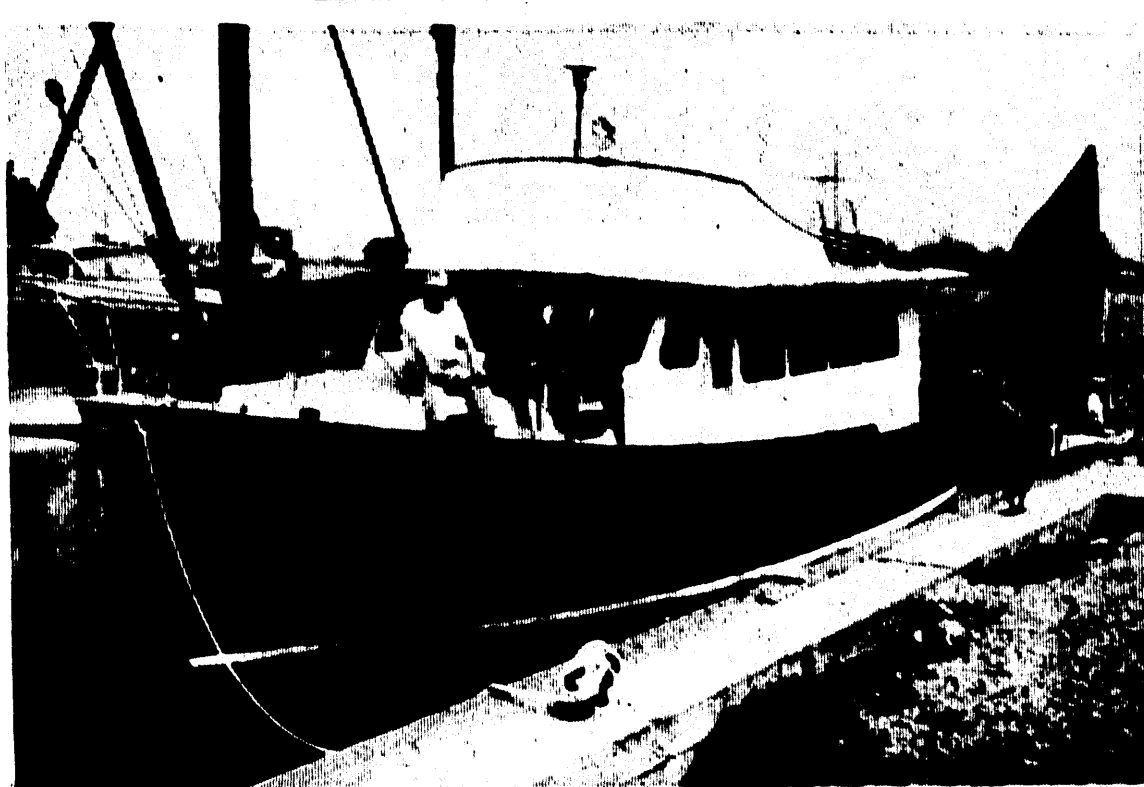

The cruiser will be ready for delivery about June 18 and the owners will come to Escanaba to cruise in area waters until about July 25, when they will start a more extended cruise of Lake Michigan and Lake Huron.

Two Retraining Projects Approved

WASHINGTON — Two retraining programs for 105 unemployed Upper Peninsula residents have been approved by the U.S. Department of Labor, according to Congressman Raymond F. Cleveland.

A 20-week course beginning June 6 at the Area Training Center in Marquette will equip 20 men with combination-welding skills. The training is available to residents of all 15 Upper Peninsula counties.

A group of 40 U.P. residents will participate in a 25-week course in machine tool operation, starting June 13 at the Area Training Center in Marquette.

Sheppard Gets Another Trial

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Supreme Court ruled today Dr. Samuel H. Sheppard, Ohio physician, did not receive a fair trial in the bludgeoning slaying of his first wife, Marilyn.

Justice Tom C. Clark, announcing the decision, said the court had concluded "that Sheppard did not receive a fair trial consistent with the due process clause of the 14th Amendment." The court, therefore, Clark said, reversed a 2-1 decision by the U.S. Circuit Court in Cincinnati, which found no evidence that Sheppard had been deprived of federal rights.

Clark concluded his opinion by saying the Sheppard case must go back to the U.S. District court in Ohio and that court must order Sheppard released from custody "unless the state puts him to its charges again within a reasonable time."

Justice Hugo L. Black noted a dissent.

Black did not state his views. The vote was 8-1.

The former Cleveland Osteopath, convicted of second degree murder and sentenced to life imprisonment in the 1954 slaying, claimed in his appeal to the high court that prejudicial news media publicity tainted the trial judge and jury.

In reply, Ohio Atty. Gen. William B. Saxbe said Sheppard was convicted in a fair trial.

The case was of special significance because two constitutional rights were at issue, freedom of the press and fair trial.

Sheppard, who all along maintained he was innocent, served more than nine years in prison before U.S. Dist. Judge Carl Weinman ordered his release in 1964 on grounds he had not received a fair trial.

Last May, the U.S. Circuit Court in Cincinnati set aside Weinman's ruling.

The Circuit Court ordered Sheppard's return to prison, but in July granted a stay to permit him to appeal to the U.S. Supreme Court.

Sheppard was convicted in December 1954 in the slaying of his pregnant wife. He said a bushy-haired intruder broke in to their home in Bay Village, a Cleveland suburb, killed her and knocked him unconscious.

In 1956 the Supreme Court refused to review the trial. But last November it granted Sheppard a hearing on a new appeal that claimed publicity about the celebrated murder made impartial jury impossible.

Summer Is Early For Some Firms

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP) — Summer is coming early to some sectors of industry.

Auto production is tapering off fast before the shutdown for changeover to new models. New orders for some other durable goods are dropping well ahead of hot weather. Steel mills look for a slowdown for this month and next, but still count on Viet Nam war needs making up for some business lost as the auto production lines cool off.

Other factory managers are studying vacation schedules, and in some plants they may be longer this summer than last.

But the traditional summer lull is far from universal in U.S. industry this time. Outside a few affected manufacturing arreas, hot weather activity may top last year's, when the economy was brisker than usual.

A study of inventory trends and of the backlog of orders facing many companies shows that any economic slowdown may well be of the rolling variety. That is, if autos slip into low gear for a time, other industries will continue to boom for a while longer.

The slowdown in the car production lines is due to a decline in sales of new cars that started in April, with May figures even farther below the year ago level.

The steel outlook is partly seasonal, tied in with customary plant shutdowns for summer vacations. But the cutbacks in orders from its big customer, the auto industry, are now being felt, with better business from some users not enough to offset it. And steel inventories in customers' hands are higher than normal, probably because of worry over Viet Nam war uncertainties. This high inventory of steel could be a threat to steel mill activity in the future, if the Viet Nam war took a turn toward solution.

Orders for durable goods in general dropped 2 per cent in April from March, the Commerce Department reported this week. New orders for nondurable goods slipped only slightly.

Factory shipments also were lower in April than in March. This meant that the backlog of orders at all factories at the start of May was up $442 million to a seasonally adjusted $71.9 billion. That kept most factories humming in May, and should continue to do so this month and next.

Just as closely studied for signs of what's ahead are the figures on inventories. For all factories the total rose $625 million from March to hit $70.2 billion at the end of April.

And all this leads the optimists to predict that all still looks pretty good for the economy — give or take a few special cases here and there.

Erie Pollution Grows Worse

OTTAWA (AP) — The seriousness of water pollution in Lake Erie is difficult to exaggerate and is continuing to grow worse. A. D. P. Heeney, chairman of the Canadian section of the International Joint Commission, claims.

Heeney told the House of Commons External Affairs Committee that no wholly satisfactory solution to the pollution problem has been found and the commission regards it as its No. 1 problem.

The commission made interim recommendations to the Canadian and U. S. governments last December to have municipal and industrial authorities on Lake Erie attack the problem. While action has been taken, the recommendations have not been formally approved by either government, Heeney said.

The principal cause of pollution is industrial waste from plants on the American side, Heeney added. He declined comment on a recent statement by John Simonett, Ontario minister of energy and resources, that Lake Erie pollution will be cleaned up by 1970. The problem is so serious and growing that he could not agree with any forecast of solution by any particular date, Heeney said.

MOUNT CLEMENS (AP) — Police were searching today for bandits who escaped with an estimated $10,000 to $14,000 Saturday from a supermarket after forcing six persons to remain in a walk-in freezer. Four men were believed involved.

Govt. Tries To Avert Air Strike

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — President Johnson has received findings of a three-man panel that might help erase the threat of a July 5 strike by 34,000 workers against five major airlines.

Press secretary Bill D. Moyers said the report of a fact-finding board headed by Sen. Wayne Morse, D-Ore., was flown to the LBJ Ranch from Washington Sunday.

The board looked into issues underlying a dispute between the AFL-CIO Association of Machinists and Aerospace Workers and five carriers: Eastern, National, Northwest, Trans World and United.

Moyers said the text of the report would be made public in Washington early this week.

Water Cleanup Meetings Set

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of the Interior Stewart Udall has announced that meetings will be held within the next couple months on cleaning up the waters in four major areas.

They are the Delaware and Chattahoochee River basins, Lake Erie and Lake Tahoe.

A Lake Erie pollution abatement conference will be held in Cleveland, Ohio, June 22.

This will followup meetings held in Cleveland and Buffalo, N. Y., last August when federal officials and representatives of Indiana, Michigan, New York, Ohio and Pennsylvania concluded that remedial action should be taken. Progress reports are to be made and additional abatement actions will be considered.

Fire Loss Jumps

LANSING (AP)—Michigan's forest fire losses this year have jumped to about 9,000 acres of forests and woodlands burned over, more than triple the 1965 acreage. Biggest blaze was a fire which went out of control over the Labor Day weekend, sweeping through 4,000 acres near Damon. Two oil wells were damaged and at least one cabin was destroyed, the Conservation Department reported.

U.P. Census Report Reveals

Fewer Farms; More Income

By JEAN WORTH
Jack Little, the Bob Hope of the Upper Peninsula cow barns, likes to quip that the pioneers here needed two forties to start farming.

"One," explains Jack "to pile the stones on!"

The area is heavily glaciated, but not as much so as some parts of New England, where the pioneers picked rock by moonlight to start their little farms.

Little, who is Michigan State University Extension dairyman for the Upper Peninsula and director of the farm experiment station at Chatham, has been the greatest single prophet of a future in U.P. farming during a period of farm decline.

Now the results of the 1964 Farm Census are at hand — the Census Bureau only counts people every 10 years, but it counts cows every 5 years — and they tend to make out Jack Little as a pretty good prophet.

There has been a great shaking up of U.P. agriculture as a part of the national farm revolution, but the net result is gain. In the last previous farm census in 1959 the 5,251 U.P. farms reported total income for the year of $17 million. The 4,158 farms in the 1964 census reported income of $20.2 million.

The U.P. lost 1,093 farms in five years and gained $3,239,185 in farm income.

Some of this gain must be charged to inflation and thus represents no solid gain in farm values, but it is still a healthy statistic which indicates that the national process which is washing out the little family farm as a food producer is also strengthening the surviving farms in the U.P. by increasing their operations and their income.

Nine Counties Gain

The 1964 Farm Census points some changes in U.P. agriculture which shows that certain areas have progressed with new enterprises like the growing of Burbank baking potatoes and the raising of young beef animals, while others that have continued the traditional U.P. milk and pulpwood farming have declined. Nine counties reported income gains, 6 declined.

Menominee County continues Mr. Big in U.P. farming. The late Jim Wells of MSU used to say "There's no mystery about it; just look at the U.P. soil map!" Menominee County has been favored by nature with good soils; it lacks the dolomite mineralization of Mackinac and Chippewa, the iron of Marquette, Dickinson, Iron and Gogebic, the copper of Ontonagon, Houghton and Keweenaw.

Two counties of the U.P. — Marquette and Chippewa — have more than a million acres of land and neither of them are in the two top slots of U.P. farming.

Marquette, the largest, ranks 10th in the number of farms (139) and 8th in farm income ($816,636) and both represent declines from the figures in the 1959 census. Marquette has 3.6 per cent of its huge land area in farms.

Chippewa has 12.8 per cent of its acreage in farms. A flatland with heavy clay soils, it is a former famed hayland and a producer of flax. It still produces hay, but the business has declined from its horse-and-buggy era volume.

Chippewa had the third largest number of farms in 1958 (665) and rose to second in 1964 with 599. Its farm income also rose, from $1.5 million to $2.1 million, but only enough to win it third rank, trailing Delta County.

Menominee County, with 660,480 acres of which a U.P. record 31.5 per cent are devoted to farming, ranks No. 1 in the number of farms (923) and also in farm income $5.4 million. It lost 159 farms in the 5 years and boosted its farm income $1.2 million.

It ranked only fourth in average income per farm, the same rank it had in '59, but in the half decade between censuses it went from $3,888 to $5,865. Menominee led in the trend toward cattle raising with sale of 3,480 animals, up from 2,433.

Delta County, with 755,200 acres devoted 15.5 per cent (second highest percentage) to agriculture and ranked third in number of farms (526 — a decline of 86) and second in income. It's $3.3 million was a gain of $789,000.

Delta was third in livestock sale, 2,706 animals, compared to 1,865 in '59.

Houghton was in fourth place, with 659,200 acres of which 11.5 per cent are in 490 farms. Houghton declined from second place to fourth in the number of farms in 5 years, from 689 to 490 and its income was static at $2 million. It was 5th in cattle sales, 882, eighth in average income $4,159.

Ontonagon Gains

Ontonagon was fifth in the number of farms, 282, down from 382. It devoted 7.2 per cent of its 845,440 acres to farming and had income of $866,136 to rank 6th, up a bit from the '59 income. It is much interested in beef breeding and ranked fourth with sale of 958 animals. Iron County was 6th in farms with 215, down from 300. It slipped in income to $835,811, averaged $3,887 farm income.

Seventh place Baraga had 204 farms and it skidded in total income and averaged $2,989.

Dickinson Stars

Dickinson was one of the brightest areas of agricultural achievement, with the accent in progress on its Burbank potato industry. Dickinson had 484,480 acres, with 9 per cent in its 197 farms. It lost 45 farms, but it boosted its annual farm income from $1.1 million to $1.8 million and it led the U.P. in average farm income with $9,151, more than doubling the 1959 figure of $4,486 in 5 years. Schoolcraft County devoted 2.4 per cent of its 767,360 acres to 97 farms, down from 130, and its income slipped from $314,500 to $211,630 and even its average income declined from 130, and its income slipped from $314,500 to $211,630 and even its average income declined from $2,516 to $2,182.

 December 25th — Christmas Day

We believe every home in town should fly the flag on national holidays. We also believe more homes would fly the flag if more people knew where to get one. Failure to fly the flag, it has been found, is not due to any lack of patriotism on the part of Americans who love Old Glory as much today as Americans did when the Spirit of '76 was first born. Because of this we make this fine flag set available as a public service at our cost. The set is top quality through and through. It meets every standard the government sets for a flag of this type. In addition, the stripes are double stitched, a hallmark of flag quality usually found only at higher prices. We include with the big 3 x 5-foot flag...all the equipment necessary for rigging according to the rules of flag etiquette. These flags are available to all...with no other requirement than that you pay our basic cost...and fly one on your home on holidays. We also include, for the convenience of those who cannot come in for flag sets, an order form which will bring a set to you by parcel post, if you wish. Fly the flag on important national holidays to come...and especially on the Birthday of American Independence July 4th. The stars and stripes on your home show the world that the Spirit of '76 is as warm in American hearts today as it was at its birth on the first 4th of July...nearly 200 years gone by.

THIS FLAG SET IS OFFERED AT COST AS A NOT-FOR-PROFIT SERVICE OF

Violent Storms Bathe Area In Flood, Flames

The Escanaba area and the central Upper Peninsula region braced itself for more storms today as a weekend of violent rain and lightning brought damage from flood and fire to farms and roads.

The temperature in Escanaba at 10 a.m. was 62 degrees, the barometer was falling, and the humidity was 89 per cent. The weather outlook was for thundershowers today and tonight.

There was a note of optimism, however. Tuesday, while windy will not be so stormy — and Wednesday's weather is forecast as fair with seasonable temperatures.

A home was destroyed, a barn was razed by flames, and eight head of cattle were killed as part of the toll of damage.

Home Burns
The James Wicelch dwelling, located about 2 1/2 miles northeast of Perronville, apparently was struck by lightning about 10:30 p.m. Saturday. There was no one at home at the time.

Before the fire was observed and the Harris Township firemen could be summoned the flames had grown out of control. The house and its contents were lost.

The Harris Township firemen were summoned again about 6:30 a.m. Sunday to the John Kane farm, where a barn and two small outbuildings were burned when the barn was struck by lightning. The farm is located about one mile south of US-41 in Harris Township toward the Hannahville Reservation.

The flames were noticed by a neighbor, Clarence Ray. The telephones were knocked out by the storm, and Ray asked Algot Erickson to summon the fire department. Kane is a former Harris Township supervisor.

Cows Are Killed
At the Louis Johnson farm one-quarter mile north of Hyde lightning killed eight cows when they stood in the stanchions in the barn at 9:30 p.m. Saturday. They were part of a herd of 35. The others were unharmed.

The lightning bolt did not cause the barn to take fire, but it did burn out a water heater in the milk house. The eight cows that died were in wooden stanchions were unharmed.

William Karas, superintendent-engineer of the Delta County Road Commission, reported that all crews are out and that every effort is being made to combat the floods that have caused 20 road washouts.

"Our records show 3 1/2 inches of rainfall within the past three days and the bad part of it is they tell us that more rain is coming," he said. "Not only that, but the high water from farther north is now beginning to flood down the Escanaba, Days, Rapid and other rivers in the county."

Roads Under Water
The Days and Tacosch and Rapid Rivers are over their banks in many places. Water stands in lakes surrounding some farm buildings.

On its upper reaches the Escanaba River was reported to be 4 feet above normal. Sluice gates at the dams were wide open to relieve the floods.

"There are some roads covered by water for a distance of two or three blocks," Karas said. "Wherever there is water over the road motorists should be careful. Proceed cautiously," he warned.

"There's not much we can do until the water recedes. We are trying to keep culverts and drains open — and we are hoping for dry weather!"

A temporary bridge on a contract job over the Days River near Brampton on M-35 was washed out. The road is closed and motorists are using a detour.

State Police of Gladstone reported that Robert C. Sayen, 21, of Gwinn, dropped five to six feet with his car when the rain-weakened shoulder gave way on County Road 426 in Escanaba Township about 10:45 p.m. Saturday. The car rolled over. Sayen was unhurt.

Hope For Clearing
The Upper Peninsula Power Co. reported scattered outages throughout the area caused by lightning. There was no major failure because of downed lines however.

bell Telephone Co. was kept busy with calls of service trouble. There were about 100 interruptions scattered throughout the area. Lightning was believed the major cause of the outages.

In Escanaba Mrs. Frederick Welch of 1606 12th Ave. S. reported that the Welch home was struck by lightning Saturday night. Although there was damage to the house, there was no fire started and no one was injured.

The weekend of storms were part of a violent weather pattern that kept the nation's midsection altered to continuing storm threat. There were tornado warnings as far north as Wisconsin.

To the west, cooler drier air is pushing its way into the central plains and is expected to reach the Lakes district perhaps by Wednesday. This will be accompanied by clearing weather and an end to the current storm period.

Former 'Stique Resident Dies
Mrs. James C. (Matilda) Wood, 84, former resident of Manistique, died Saturday in Oconomowoc, Wis. She was the widow of Attorney James Wood, city attorney of Manistique and president of the First National Bank from 1934-44. He died Dec. 9, 1944.

Friends may call at Kefauver & Jackson Funeral Home from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. Tuesday. Funeral services will be held 2 p.m. Wednesday with Rev. Carlson Gardau of Munising officiating. Burial will be in Fairview Cemetery.

Birthday Party
Stephen and Christine Martin, children of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Martin, 1030 S. 16th St., Escanaba, enjoyed a birthday party at the home of their parents on Saturday, June 4. Christine was three years old Sunday, June 5 and Steve will be six on June 7.

Games were enjoyed by the children with several prizes awarded and a party lunch was served featuring a birthday cake decorated in a circus theme.

Assisting Mrs. Martin with the party was Mrs. Ray Rouse. Guests included: Doug Pearson, Lynn and Julie Grettum, Ricky Nelson, Sherilyn and Debbie Neiman, Mrs. Ernest Martin, Mrs. John Grettum and Mrs. Anna Fallmer, great grandmother of Steve and Christine.

out the back seat to free herself and found the baby, unhurt, on the car floor.

An hour later, the suspect was captured.

Sunday's kidnaping followed by less than 24 hours the abduction of 17-year-old Mary Estlund in Davison, near Flint.

Miss Estlund was abducted less than a block from her home by a gun-wielding man who forced her into his car and drove off.

State police Trooper Harvey Kuiper found the car on a lonely country road several miles east of Flint and forced it off the highway.

Miss Estlund broke away from her captor and ran to Kuiper, screaming. The man ran into a wooded area.

An hour later, police searching the area heard a shot and a scream. On a wooded trail, they found Glenn Duane Wilson, Jr., 25, bleeding from a wound in his chest. Wilson told police he shot himself accidentally when he stumbled over a tree trunk.

Wilson was placed under police guard at Hurley Hospital in Flint where he underwent an operation and his condition was described as fair.

Chamber Warns On Fake Invoices

The Escanaba Chamber of Commerce today warned that invoice-like forms are being received in this area to induce businessmen to pay for listings on directories they didn't order and don't want.

Walter G. Lewke, manager of the Chamber, said this directory scheme is aimed particularly at company employees responsible for approving invoices for payment and often creates the impression that the solicitation forms represent a renewal of the company's listing or advertisement in the local telephone directory or other established directory.

'66 GOP Year Of Reluctance

WASHINGTON (AP) — In Republican party history, 1966 may go down as the year of the reluctant dragons.

First, Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York and now Gov. William W. Scranton of Pennsylvania have declared themselves uninterested in running for president in 1968.

Gov. George Romney of Michigan says he is only running for governor. Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon says he is not a candidate for anything. You may take them at their word but don't bet that the politicians will.

Often in politics, "no" has meant "maybe" and politicians don't give up easily on a potential nominee if they think he might be a winner.

Mississippi Vote Watched

JACKSON, Miss. (AP) — Several earmarks of a traditional Mississippi election will be missing Tuesday when voters choose party nominees for Congress.

For the first time poll taxes will not be required and for the first time, Republicans are staging a primary for a congressional post.

The election also will mark the first major voter test of newly registered Negro voters. Negroes have boosted their strength from 6.4 per cent three years ago to slightly over 20 per cent of the electorate. Negro voters now number 170,000 compared to 30,000 three years ago.

King Defeated In Belmont As Amberoid Wins

NEW YORK (AP) — The race for the 3-year-old championship has come full circle now. With Kauai King's defeat in the Belmont Stakes, it's once again a wide-open affair with at least four horses in strong contention. The 1 1/4 miles of the Travers Aug. 20 could be decisive race. The championship first figured to be a struggle between Graustark and Buckpasser. Then Kauai King took command and appeared to have it all but wrapped up. The situation changed Saturday when Reginald Webster's Amberoid posted a 2 1/2 length victory in the Belmont Stakes and Kentucky Derby-Preakness winner Kauai King ran fourth. Buckpasser returned to competition on the same Aqueduct card with an authoritative decision over older horses. With Graustark retired, Creme dela Creme, winner of the Jersey Derby and beaten only once, is the other member of the contenders foursome. He sat out the Belmont and is being pointed for the one mile of the $100,000-added Classic at Arlington Park June 25.

While Amberoid and Kauai King are taking vacations from a rigorous campaign, Buckpasser will be very active. Eddie Nelyo has planned a busy campaign for Ogden Phipps' 1965 2-year-old champion following his allowance victory in 1:05 1/5 for six furlongs. The son of Tom Fool, absent with a hoof injury since winning the Flamingo at Hialeah Park early in March, will make his next start in $35,000-added Leonard Richards at Delaware Park June 18 and then return to New York for the Saratoga and Dwyer in July. Amberoid's immediate plans are not definite but he may go west for the American Derby at Arlington Park Aug. 6. That's also Kauai King's next objective although trainer Henry Forrest indicated he might send the son of Native Dancer after the Arlington Classic. After the Classic, Creme dela Creme is scheduled to return to Monmouth Park in New Jersey. All trainers, however, have indicated that if everything goes well they'll be at Saratoga for the Travers.

Columbus Takes First Place In Baseball League

By The Associated Press

The Columbus Jets, tied with Toledo for the top rung in the International League, took over sole possession in convincing fashion Sunday by routing the Mud Hens in both ends of a twin bill, 11-0 and 9-2.

The Jets raked six Toledo pitchers for 26 hits — five of them home runs — while using half as many pitchers in limiting the Mud Hens to half as many hits.

Luke Walker scattered eight hits in the opener in notching his second win of the year. George Small ran his unbeaten string to three in the nightcap with 6 1/3 innings of three-hit relief pitching.

Larry Derrick led the Columbus attack, homering in both games and driving in four runs. Meanwhile, at Rochester, the Red Wings salvaged a split with Syracuse with their 7-3 nightcap victory after kicking away a five-run lead in the opener.

The Chiefs, down 5-0, scored nine runs over the middle three innings to take a 9-4 lead. Three Red Wing runs in the bottom of the ninth sent the game into overtime.

The tie was short-lived, however, as Tom Matchick and Julio Navarro led off the Chief half of the 10th with home runs, giving Syracuse just enough to offset Steve Demeter's solo blast for the Red Wings in the bottom of the inning.

Rochester nailed down the nightcap with a six-run outburst in the first inning. The wings coasted home the rest of the way on the route-going performance by Harley Anderson, who scattered 10 hits.

At Toronto, Buffalo gained an even break with the Maple Leafs by taking the second game, 5-4, after dropping the opener, 6-0.

Four-hit pitching by Pete Magrini combined with home runs by Reggie Smith and Mike Andrews gave the Leafs the first game.

Toronto grabbed a 3-0 lead in the nightcap but the Bisons fought back to even the count 4-4. They pushed over the winning run in the sixth when Guido Grilli walked Terry Banders as with the bases loaded.

Richmond's Braves edged Jacksonville 5-4 as Billy Southworth and Tommy Aaron led a three-run uprising in the eighth with back-to-back, run-producing hits. The win, Richmond's 11th in its last 15 starts, was credited to Herb Hippauf. Bob Johnson was tagged with the loss.

Foyt Suffers Serious Burns

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (AP) — "I knew I had to get out or just fry," bandage-swathed A. J. Foyt said from a hospital bed Sunday.

The ace racing driver was badly burned Saturday in a crack-up during a test run at the Wisconsin State Fair Park here.

The 31-year-old Houston, Tex., driver had been favored to win Sunday's 100-mile Rex Mays classic in a car he had just purchased from Scotland's Jimmy Clark.

A spokesman at the West Allis Memorial Hospital said Foyt suffered second and third degree burns on the face, neck and both hands. The burns covered from nine to 15 per cent of his body, the spokesman said. His condition was listed as good.

Foyt was streaking down the straightaway when the left rear suspension collapsed.

The car rammed into the south wall at the first turn, careened off and burst into flames as it spun.

Dressen Gets Release Today

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Detroit Tigers manager Charlie Dressen, who was hospitalized with a heart attack last month, will be released today from Henry Ford Hospital in Detroit, a team spokesman said.

Club officials said they had no indication when Dressen would rejoin the team. He still is in the hands of his doctors, they said.

The Class A team championship was decided in the doubles competition, with Dennis Cavanaugh and Jon Hainline of Detroit Austin scoring a 1-6, 6-0, 6-2 triumph over Hamtramck's Mike Whitley and John Lamerato.

Steve Campbell of Kalamazoo U. high chalked up his third consecutive Class B singles title with a 6-3, 6-1 victory over Portage Central's Pat Hamilton.

In Class B doubles, defending champion Scott Kershner and Bill Richards of Galesburg beat

Nationalized French Firms Make Big Deals With Both Red Blocs

PARIS (AP) — Two nationalized French firms have made big business deals with the Soviet Union and Red China recently, but officials deny any political implications.

"It's strictly business," said a spokesman of the Foreign Ministry. "Politics had nothing to do with it."

A spokesman for the Ministry of Economic Affairs said the same thing.

The deal with the Soviet Union gives Renault, France's largest auto maker, a free hand in revitalizing and expanding Russia's Moskvich auto plant. The one with Red China opens a Paris-Shanghai route for Air France and a Chinese airline.

Both agreements were announced less than three weeks before President Charles de Gaulle leaves on an official visit to the Soviet Union.

De Gaulle has been campaigning for years for more East-West contacts, economic as well as cultural, as a step toward easing tensions. There has been speculation in the French press that his visit to Moscow may provide the occasion to announce more such contacts.

Air France now flies between Paris and Warsaw and Paris and Moscow on schedules a spokesman said were partly controlled by "diplomatic factors." He said the company wasn't losing money on these routes but refused to give profit figures on them.

In 1964, the last year for which figures are available, Air France reported a profit of $576,000 on receipts totaling $355 million. But the receipts included a government subsidy of $9.2 million.

Air France's profit outlook for its route to China is bright because it will stop in Athens, Cairo, Karachi, Phnom Penh and possibly Tehran, an official said.

Since its nationalization after World War II, Renault has set up assembly, sales and service facilities all over the non-Communist world and in 1964 showed a $1.17 million profit on a turnover of $853 million.

One news report said the Renault-Soviet accord may be expanded into a package involving $80 million to $100 million with participation also of Peugeot and several supplies of auto machinery and equipment for service stations in 15 cities.

Five Drown

By The Associated Press
Five young persons, including two from Flint, drowned in Michigan waters during the weekend.

SEVENTH DAY ADVENTISTS are giving their young men special advance military training before they are drafted. Since the Adventists decline to bear arms and they strictly observe their Saturday sabbath, leaders feel the training is needed to offset the "couple of strikes against us." The Adventists serve in Army medical divisions and three have been killed in service in Viet Nam. (AP Wirephoto)

Woman Drowned In Yacht Mishap

DETROIT (AP) — Four persons were thrown overboard and one was missing and presumed drowned Sunday night when an excursion boat collided with a 26-foot cabin cruiser on the Detroit River.

Detroit police said Mrs. Peggy Durbin, 32, of Detroit, was one of ten persons aboard the cruiser "10 G's," owned by Max Moore of Detroit. Coast Guard and harbormaster vessels were searching for her body.

Reagan And Foe In Vote Stretch

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Actor Ronald Reagan and his opponent, George Christopher, speeded across California today, appealing to the uncommitted as they wind up their campaigns for the Republican gubernatorial nomination.

At stake was the job of leading the Republican party — a minority in the nation's most populous state — back to the control of the state Capitol. Democratic Gov. Edmund G. Brown and a Democratic legislature have run the state since 1959.

Brown, facing primary opposition from Los Angeles Mayor Samuel W. Yorty in his try for a third term, called it "one of the most important elections this state has ever held."

Besides picking nominees for statewide office, the 7,855,102 registered voters will be confronted Tuesday with candidates for legislative offices.

Reappointed

Of the 601 candidates, many will be seeking new State Senate seats in populous Southern California. A court-ordered reapportionment will transfer control of that House from the rural areas of the north.

Reagan chose the office seeker's standby, the airplane tour, for his final effort in the primary race.

Christopher, former San Francisco mayor, also campaigned by plane, stopping at some of the places on Reagan's schedule. The polls showed him behind, but he said, "There are a lot of 'don't know' people," referring to the undecided voters.

Defeated in his past bids for lieutenant governor and U. S. Senator, Christopher says he is the only Republican who can defeat Brown in November. "Pat Brown has a vested interest in the status quo," he said in remarks prepared for delivery to a Los Angeles news conference.

Welfare Mounts
"As the welfare rolls swell, so does seemingly limitless supply of patronage, bureaucratic waste and pork barrel," he said.

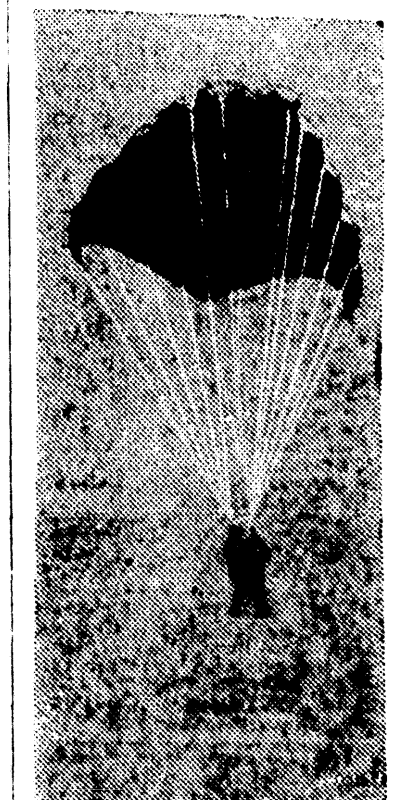

Christopher's air tour dropped down to the blazing hot Southern California community of El Centro Sunday. A small crowd heard him say: "This is the dirtiest campaign I've ever seen."

Asked if he would support Reagan, Christopher replied: "I've made no promises to anybody now. I'm a free agent. I have no obligations except to my wife and family."

There was nothing but good cheer on Reagan's tour Sunday. He aimed at Democrats in the genial, party-unity manner that another Hollywood personality, George Murphy, used in his successful race for the U. S. Senate two years ago.

To a Santa Ana crowd estimated at 5,000, he once again said he is not searching for a "political victory but a moral crusade."

"What we intend is a society based on the people's respect for the law and the government's respect for the people," he said.

Unlike conventional parachutes, the parawing develops aerodynamic life, giving it gliding and maneuvering capabilities.

LBJ Popularity Skids In Polls

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson tried to play it cool while critics of the Viet Nam war raised the temperature and now opinion polls indicate a dwindling confidence in the way he handles his job.

There are other reasons for what seems to be a growing disenchantment.

But the poll results must be disturbing to a man who likes to feel he has broad public support for his actions before he acts. Consensus, he calls it. He had it in 1965, a calmer time than this.

In that first year after his election Congress, overwhelmingly controlled by his Democrats, listened to him dutifully and responded with the most productive legislature year in history.

He isn't having the same leisure now. In the meantime

two things above all happened:

The United States got up to its neck in Viet Nam, where factional chaos sometimes makes American help look ludicrous, and the criticism of American involvement and Johnson's leadership took on big dimensions.

Johnson had a choice.

He could have tackled his critics head on—say with a detailed explanation to the nation on television—or let his top aides do the answering.

He chose the second course which has been much less than fully effective.

Benedict IX, who was elected in 1033 at an age variously given as 18 or 20 years, was the youngest Pope.

Rescues Train

BEMENT, Ill. (AP) — A truck came to the rescue of a Norfolk and Western passenger train recently.

The Banner Blue, en route from Chicago to nearby Decatur, ran out of fuel and had to wait until the truck brought 300 gallons of diesel fuel.
